

What is a 'BAS Service'?

Please note that this document is intended as a guide only and contains an overview of the meaning of the term 'BAS service' under the Tax Agent Services Act 2009. This fact sheet is subject to change.

What is a BAS Service?

A "BAS service" is a 'tax agent service' that relates to:

- ascertaining liabilities, obligations or entitlements of an entity that arise, or could arise, under a 'BAS provision'; or
- advising an entity about liabilities, obligations or entitlements of the entity or another entity that arise, or could arise, under a BAS provision; or
- representing an entity in their dealings with the Commissioner of Taxation in relation to a BAS provision; and that is provided in circumstances where the entity can reasonably be expected to rely on the service for the purpose of satisfying liabilities or obligations that arise, or could arise, under a BAS provision and/or to claim entitlements that arise, or could arise, under a BAS provision.

'BAS provision' includes:

- GST law;
- wine equalisation tax law;
- luxury car tax law;
- fuel tax law;
- fringe benefits tax law (relating to collection and recovery only);
- pay as you go (PAYG) withholding;
- PAYG instalments.

What are examples of a BAS Service?

A BAS service includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- preparing or lodging an approved form about a taxpayer's liabilities, obligations or entitlements under a BAS provision;
- giving a taxpayer advice about a BAS provision that the taxpayer can reasonably be expected to rely upon to satisfy their taxation obligations; or
- dealing with the Commissioner on behalf of a taxpayer in relation to a BAS provision.

BAS services only include those services that involve the application or interpretation of a BAS provision, and those services which involve representing an entity in their dealings with the Commissioner in relation to a BAS provision.

A list of indicative BAS services can be found in Appendix A attached to this fact sheet.
